DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On October 25, 2021, Rebecca Mouyos filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that she suffered a right shoulder injury related to vaccine administration a Table injury, resulting from an influenza vaccine she received on October 25, 2019. Petition, ECF No. 1. On December 5, 2023, I issued a decision awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the parties' stipulation. ECF No. 32.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2018).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, requesting an award of $29,883.06 (representing $28,874.50 in fees plus $1,008.56 in costs). Petitioner's Application for Fees and Costs ("Motion") filed Feb. 2, 2024, ECF No. 37. Furthermore, Petitioner filed a signed statement represents that Petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. Motion at 44.

Respondent reacted to the motion on Feb. 13, 2024, reporting that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. Respondent's Response to Motion at 2-3, ECF No. 38. Petitioner did not file a reply thereafter.

The rates requested for work performed through the end of 2023 are reasonable and consistent with our prior determinations and will therefore be adopted. Petitioner has also requested the hourly rate of $450 for 2024 work performed by attorney David J. Carney, representing a rate increase of $25; and the hourly rate of $175 for paralegal work performed in 2024; Motion at 22-23. I find these hourly rates to be reasonable and will award the attorney's fees requested. (And all time billed to the matter was also reasonably incurred). Furthermore, Petitioner has provided supporting documentation for all claimed costs (Motion at 25-42) and Respondent offered no specific objection to the rates or amounts sought.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $29,883.06 (representing $28,874.50 in fees plus $1,008.56 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, David J. Carney. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this Decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
